

Bill No. of 2025

MEDIA BILL, 2025
(Published , 2025)

MEMORANDUM

1. A draft of the above Bill, which it is intended to be presented to the National Assembly, is set out below.

2. The Bill seeks to establish an independent self-regulatory body known as the Media Practitioners to regulate the media sector in the public interest. The Bill aims to promote and protect media freedom, uphold ethical and professional standards in journalism, and provide effective mechanisms for dispute resolution, including a Media Ombudsman and Appeals Committee. The Bill also provides for financial autonomy, protection of journalists, and the establishment of a Media Development Fund.

3. The key objectives of the Bill are to —

- safeguard freedom of expression and independence of the media;
- promote ethical and professional journalism through enforceable standards;
- protect journalists and media enterprises from legal harassment, SLAPP suits, and undue interference;
- establish clear accountability and governance structures for media regulation;
- provide accessible and impartial complaint and appeals mechanisms; and
- facilitate development and sustainability of the media sector through a dedicated Media Development Fund.

4. to that end, the Bill provides as follows —

Part I contains the short title, commencement, interpretation provisions, and sets out the object of the Act. It provides that the Act shall prevail over inconsistent laws relating to media freedom.

Part II provides for the continuation and independence of the Council, its objectives and functions, and outlines the application of media standards across all platforms, including digital media. It affirms the editorial independence of journalists.

Part III establishes the governing Board of the Council, defines its composition, qualifications, tenure, disqualification and removal of members, and procedures for filling vacancies. It ensures broad stakeholder representation, including independent journalists and members of the public.

Part IV regulates the conduct of Board meetings, quorum requirements, disclosure of interest, confidentiality obligations, establishment of Board committees, and the role of co-opted members.

Part V provides for the appointment, powers, and responsibilities of the Executive Director, Secretary, and other staff of the Council, as well as internal administrative structures.

Part VI sets out the funding sources, financial autonomy, accounting and auditing requirements of the Council. It allows the establishment of pension and other staff welfare funds and mandates the publication of an annual report.

B.2

Part VII establishes a Media Development Fund to support media growth and innovation, including its sources of income, permitted uses, and administration.

Part VIII guarantees media freedom and the protection of journalistic sources, provides defences against SLAPP suits, prohibits legal harassment and surveillance, and affirms journalists' access rights and the public's right to correction through rejoinders.

Part IX provides for the establishment of an Ethics and Conduct Committee, the development of a Code of Ethics, and responsibilities of media enterprises concerning authorship and editorial accountability.

Part X establishes an independent Media Ombudsman to receive and mediate complaints concerning journalistic conduct and media content, and refers ethical and conduct matters to the Council's Ethics Committee.

Part XI provides for the establishment, composition, and mandate of the Appeals Committee to hear appeals from decisions of the Media Ombudsman, with powers to confirm, vary or overturn such decisions.

Part XII contains miscellaneous provisions which include provisions on monitoring and reporting, exemption from personal liability for actions taken in good faith, offences and penalties, regulation-making powers, repeal of the Media Practitioners Association Act (Cap. 61:09), and transitional provisions.

	“journalist” means any person who engages in regular gathering, processing or dissemination of news or information to the public through any medium whether employed or freelance, in any form of media, including digital platforms, and may be registered as such by the Council for the purpose of professional recognition; “media” means the regular or periodic production and dissemination of information or content intended to reach and influence a significant section of the public, where such production and dissemination is subject to editorial responsibility, whether by means of print, broadcast, digital, electronic or any other technological platform; “rejoinder” means a written response by a person or entity to a publication that they claim is inaccurate, misleading, or harmful, intended to clarify or correct the record; “SLAPP suit” means a strategic lawsuit against public participation intended to silence or intimidate criticism.
Object of Act	3. The object of the Act is to — (a) promote and protect the freedom and independence of the media in Botswana; (b) establish an independent body to oversee media regulation; (c) promote ethical and professional standards in journalism; (d) protect journalistic sources and editorial independence; and (e) prevent abuse of the legal system to stifle media freedom.
Conflict with other laws	4. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Act and any other law on media freedom and independence, the provisions of this Act shall take precedence.

PART II — Establishment of Media Regulatory Council

Continuation of Council	5. (1) The Media Council established under section 3 of the repealed Act is hereby continued under the name Media Practitioners Council and shall continue to exist as if established under this Act. (2) The Council shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal, capable of suing and being sued in its own name and, subject to the provisions of this Act, of performing such acts as bodies corporate may, by law, perform, including to — (a) acquire and sell such movable and immovable property as may be necessary for the efficient operation of the Council; and (b) enter into such contracts as may be required under the seal, and for the efficient operation, of the Council.
Independence of Council	6. (1) The Council shall be independent and shall not, in the performance of its functions, be subject to the direction or control of any person or authority.

(2) The Council shall operate in a manner that ensures impartiality, transparency, and accountability.

7. The objectives of the Council shall be to —

Objectives
of Council

- (a) promote and protect the freedom and independence of the media;
- (b) determine professional standards for journalists and media enterprises;
- (c) promote and enhance ethical and professional standards amongst journalists and media enterprises;
- (d) protect the rights and privileges of journalists and media enterprises;
- (e) develop and regulate ethical and disciplinary standards;
- (f) register, in such manner as may be prescribed, professional bodies responsible for the training of journalists and the certification of the competence of the journalists;
- (g) maintain a register of journalists, media enterprises for the purpose of professional recognition;
- (h) promote public awareness of the rights and responsibilities;
- (i) facilitate cooperation among media stakeholders; and
- (j) cooperate with international and regional organisations in promoting best practices and fulfilling Botswana's international obligations.

8. The Council shall, for the purpose of the attainment of its objectives, ensure —

Functions
of Council

- (a) compliance with this Act;
- (b) that the freedom and independence of the media is exercised in a manner that respects the rights of others; and
- (c) that the protection of national security, public order and public health is maintained in accordance with the applicable law.

9. The Council shall develop, promote and enforce uniform standards of professional and ethical journalism applicable to all media platforms, including print, broadcast, digital, and online media, to ensure accuracy, fairness, accountability, and public trust in the media.

Media standards and application

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Council shall, in relation to digital and online media platforms —

- (a) promote ethical online journalism, including the transparency of sponsored content and responsible moderation practices;
- (b) maintain a voluntary register of online media entities engaged in journalistic activities in Botswana;
- (c) ensure that online media platforms are held to the same standards of journalistic integrity as other media platforms; and
- (d) safeguard freedom of expression online and protect against unjustified content takedown or censorship.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be interpreted as requiring prior registration or licensing as a condition for engaging in journalistic activities, whether through online or offline platforms.

B.8

Independence
of journalists

10. The Council shall not interfere with, or direct, a journalist's professional activities, including editorial judgement, news gathering, choice of sources, and decision making on the publication or broadcast of content.

Lodging of complaint

11. (1) Any person who is aggrieved by the publication of media content or by the conduct or omission of a journalist, editor, publisher or media enterprise may lodge a complaint with the Council.

(2) A complaint shall be lodged within 30 days from the date the complainant became aware of the conduct or publication complained of, or such longer period as the Council may allow for good cause shown.

(3) Upon receipt of a complaint under this section, the Council shall refer the complaint to the Media Ombudsman for resolution under section 59.

(4) Nothing in this section shall preclude a complainant from submitting a rejoinder under section 45 or lodging a complaint in relation to a rejected rejoinder under section 49.

PART III — Board of Council

Establishment
of Board

12. There is established a body to be known as the Media Practitioner's Council Board which shall be the governing body of the Council and shall be responsible for the proper management and direction of the affairs of the Council.

Composition
of Board

13. (1) The Board shall consist of seven members elected from amongst persons who are representatives of the professional bodies, who have experience or expertise in the media, law, or any other area relevant to the objects and functions of the Council.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Board shall consist of the following members —

- (a) one legal practitioner, with expertise in media law, appointed following a public call for applications;
- (b) one person nominated by media publishers;
- (c) two persons, one each nominated by online media platforms and broadcasters, respectively;

Filling of vacancy in Board	18. (1) Where the office of a member becomes vacant before the expiry of the member’s term of office due to death, or removal or resignation from office in accordance with section 15, the Council shall elect another person to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term. (2) This section shall not apply where the remainder of the term for which the member whose office has been vacated would otherwise have held office is less than six months.
Remuneration and allowances of members of Board	19. A member shall be paid in connection with his or her service in the Board, out of funds of the Council, such remuneration and allowances as the Council may, from time to time determine.

PART IV — Meetings and Proceedings of Board

Meetings of Board	20. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Board may regulate its own proceedings. (2) The Board shall hold its first meeting on such date and at such place as the Executive director may fix and thereafter the Board shall meet at least once in every three months.
-------------------	--

(3) Meetings of the Board may be held virtually or in person, at such places and times as the Board may determine and shall be convened by the Chairperson.

(4) The Chairperson may, in writing, convene a meeting of the Board by giving the members of the Board a notice of not less than seven days of the meeting.

(5) The Chairperson may, where a matter is urgent and does not permit the giving of notice in terms of subsection (4), call a special meeting of the Board within a period not less than seven days of receipt of a special request in writing.

(6) There shall preside at any meeting of the Board —

(a) the Chairperson;

(b) in the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice Chairperson of the Board; or

(c) in the absence of the Chairperson and the Vice Chairperson of the Board, such member as the members present may elect from among themselves for the purpose of that meeting.

(7) The Secretary of the Board shall cause to be recorded and kept minutes of all proceedings of the meetings of the Board.

21. (1) The quorum at any meeting of the Board shall be a simple majority of the members.

Quorum and procedure at meetings

(2) A decision of the Board on any question shall be by the majority of the members present and voting at the meeting and, in the event of an equality of the votes, the member presiding shall have a casting vote in addition to that member's deliberative vote.

(3) A decision of the Board shall not be rendered invalid by reason of a vacancy on the Board or by the fact that a person not entitled to vote did so vote.

22. (1) If a member is present at a meeting of the Board at which any matter in which the member or immediate family member of the member is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity is the subject of consideration, the member shall, as soon as practicable after the commencement of the meeting, disclose such interest and shall not, unless the Board otherwise directs, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on any question touching on the matter.

Disclosure of interest

(2) A disclosure of interest made under subsection (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

(3) Where a member fails to disclose his or her interest in accordance with subsection (1) and a decision by the Board is made benefitting such member, or an immediate family member of the member, such decision shall be null and void to the extent that it benefitted such member or family member.

(4) A member who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding P5 000, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or to both.

Confidentiality

23. (1) A member and any other person assisting the Board shall observe and preserve the confidentiality of all matters coming before the Board, and such confidentiality shall subsist even after the termination of their terms of office or their mandate.

(2) Any member or any person to whom confidential information is revealed through working with the Board shall not disclose that information to any other person unless he or she is required to do so in terms of this Act, any written law or for purposes of any judicial proceedings.

(3) Any member or any other person who contravenes the provisions of this section commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding P50 000, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or to both.

Committees of Board

24. (1) The Board may establish a committee or sub-committee which shall carry out any function of the Board, which the Board may delegate to the committee or sub-committee.

(2) A committee or sub-committee established in terms of subsection (1) shall be responsible for, but not limited to —

- (a) finance and audit;
- (b) risk management; and
- (c) compliance and monitoring.

(3) The provisions of sections 21, 22 and 23 shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to a member of a committee or sub-committee of the Board.

Co-opted members

25. (1) The Board may, where it considers it necessary, co-opt any person whose presence at a meeting of the Board is deemed necessary to —

- (a) attend and participate in the deliberations at the meeting of the Board; or
- (b) undertake occasional assignments related to the functions of the Board.

(2) A person co-opted under subsection (1) shall —

- (a) have no right to vote; and
- (b) be remunerated at the rate set by the Board.

(3) The provisions of sections 22 and 23 shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to co-opted persons.

PART V — Management and Staff of Council

Appointment of executive Director of Council

26. (1) The Council shall appoint an Executive Director on such terms and conditions as may be specified in the instrument of appointment.

(2) The Executive Director shall hold office for a maximum period of five years and may be considered for re-appointment for a further term not exceeding five years.

(3) The Executive Director shall not, while in the employment of the Council, engage in paid employment outside the duties of his or her office in the Council.

27. (1) The Executive Director shall be the administrative head of the Council and shall, subject to such directions on matters of policy as may be given by the Board, be responsible for the day-to-day management of the affairs of the Council.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Executive director shall be responsible for —

- (a) the efficient administration of the Council;
- (b) the organisation and management of all employees of the Council;
- (c) the supervision and maintenance of discipline in respect of the employees of the Council;
- (d) the implementation of the decisions of the Board;
- (e) the management of the support structure of the Council;
- (f) all income and expenditure of the Council;
- (g) all assets of the Council and the discharge of all the liabilities of the Council; and
- (h) managing the Council on sound commercial and financial principles in accordance with policies and decisions made by the Board.

Duties of Executive Director

(3) The Executive Director may delegate, in writing, to any senior officer of the Council, the exercise of any powers which he or she is authorised to exercise under this Act.

28. (1) The Board shall, on the recommendation of the Executive Director, appoint a Secretary to the Board, on such terms and conditions as may be specified in the instrument of appointment.

Appointment of Secretary of Board

(2) The Secretary shall, in addition to any function that may assigned to him or her by the Board or the Executive Director, be responsible for —

- (a) taking minutes of the meetings of the Board;
- (b) keeping records of all decisions of the Board; and
- (c) keeping records of legal transactions of the Council.

(3) The Secretary shall, unless the Board otherwise directs, in writing, giving the circumstances leading to its decision, attend all meetings of the Board but shall not have a right to vote on any matter before the Board.

(4) In the performance of his or her duties, the Secretary shall be accountable to the Executive Director.

(5) In the absence of the Secretary, the Executive Director may appoint any senior member of staff of the Council to perform the functions of the Secretary until the Secretary resumes office, or the vacancy is filled, as the case may be.

29. (1) The Board shall appoint the Executive Director of the Council.

Other staff
of Council

(2) The Executive Director shall appoint such other staff as may be necessary for the proper discharge of the functions of the Council.

(3) The terms and conditions of employment of staff of the Council shall be determined by the Executive Director, in consultation with the Board.

PART VIII — Rights and Protections in Media Practice

Freedom and independence
of media

38. (1) Every journalist shall enjoy the right to freedom of expression, including the freedom to seek, receive, and impart information and ideas of all kinds, regardless of frontiers.

(2) No person shall unjustly interfere with the media's role in informing the public or unduly restrict the publication or dissemination of content.

Protection of journalistic sources and communications

39. (1) A journalist or media enterprise shall not be compelled to disclose the identity of a confidential source or any unpublished information obtained in the course of professional activities, unless a court of competent jurisdiction, after conducting a thorough and reasoned assessment, determines that —

- (a) the disclosure is necessary, proportionate, and in the public interest;
- (b) the information cannot reasonably be obtained by any other less intrusive means; and
- (c) the public interest in disclosure outweighs the potential harm to —
 - (i) freedom of expression,
 - (ii) journalistic confidentiality, and
 - (iii) the safety of the source.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), disclosure shall only be permitted where it is necessary for the prevention of a serious and imminent threat to national security or the commission of a serious crime, and the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of that subsection are satisfied.
